Standard payment terms

Lindsell Train's ("LTL") standard payment terms are to pay correctly issued and valid invoices from suppliers we deal with within thirty calendar days from the date of receipt unless specifically agreed otherwise in writing between the supplier and LTL. If there is an agreed payment terms over 30 day period, the maximum contractual payment period shall be no more than 60 calendar days. To ensure prompt payment, supplier invoices should be emailed to finance@lindselltrain.com. All invoice related queries should be addressed to finance@lindselltrain.com.

Were there any changes to the standard payment terms in the reporting period? - No

Maximum contractual payment period agreed - 60 days

Any other information about payment terms - N/A

Dispute resolution process

LTL aims to resolve queries and disputes on a timely basis. If any amount of the invoice received by LTL is disputed, LTL shall inform the supplier of the grounds for such dispute within fourteen calendar days following the receipt of the service rendered or goods delivered. The supplier can escalate the dispute by emailing finance@lindselltrain.com with a copy of invoice and correspondence to date in respect of the dispute and providing an outline of the issues. The finance department will escalate the information to facilitate a resolution where possible. LTL shall not pay the disputed invoice until resolution. If a dispute cannot be resolved after communications with the supplier, legal advice will be sought.
